

UNITY: What makes it work?

Everyone in the group helps to make it work

There are plenty of opportunities to get involved

Regular, 6-weekly meetings

Travel expenses are reimbursed

Refreshments, biscuits and lunch are provided

We de-brief after our contributions to the courses

A welcoming, friendly and supportive environment

There are opportunities to meet other service user involvement groups from other universities in Scotland

Students tell us we make a difference

Everyone gets something out of being involved. It's a 2-way process

Consistency of staff, with one University staff member co-ordinating involvement

People's views count

A range of organisations from across Forth Valley are represented

A wide range of service users are represented, who all want to make a difference
